

The freshman/sophomore UW campuses

The Structure of the UW Colleges

The UW Colleges are part of the University of Wisconsin System, comprised of thirteen campuses offering the first two years of a liberal arts education and an Associate of Arts and Science Degree that guarantees transfer as a junior to any of the 13 four-year UW institutions.

The 13 UW-Colleges campuses are listed and their individual websites can be accessed at <http://www.uwc.edu>.

Decisions about staffing and curriculum are made through a system of shared governance involving the UW System Administration, the UW Colleges Administration, Academic Departments, campus deans and faculty/staff representation on committees and campus collegia.
